Make your volunteering hours count with the La Trobe Award

How many volunteer hours do you spend organising activities/events/meetings for your club?

Do you want this contribution officially recognised on your academic transcript?

Are you interested in FREE training which has been specifically designed to help committee members work together and achieve their aims?

Then why not register for the La Trobe Award?

Comprising of three levels – Bronze, Silver and Gold – the Award is dependent on the amount of volunteering hours and the FREE training you complete.

The minimum requirement is 10 hours of volunteering in one semester and the completion of two free training modules to obtain Bronze.

You may choose to work towards the award level in one semester, or accumulate your Award over the course of your degree. It's up to you.

To Register

Step One: Register online at: https://latrobe.careerhub.com.au/Form.aspx?id=213279

Step Two: We will confirm your role and position with the Clubs and Societies officer. Your place in the Award will then be confirmed via email.

Step Three: Select, book and attend available training modules.

Step Four: Complete and submit a volunteer log book at the end of semester.

Please note - for students already participating in the program - do not register again. You will only need to complete Steps 3 and 4.

Training Modules available in Semester One, 2012 include:

- Leadership
- Running Effective Meetings
- Event Planning
- Conflict Management
